SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

It is a pleasure to report at this time, the middle of January, that no deficiency will be necessary this year provided we have no emergencies between now and the end of the school year. The addition of one high school tuition pupil would automatically change this.

Many new cooperative schools are being studied throughout the state and, eventually, some of these will become effective. I call this to your attention merely to be sure that Hebron will know what is being done and that it may want to join in any studies which might affect it. To be a part of a study group does not mean approval of the project. There have been many such studies with no positive results.

Respectfully submitted,

C. MAURICE GRAY
